

Subject Index

- Action Research Project on Hunger, Homelessness and Family Health, 137, 140, 145, 149
- African Americans. See also American Blacks
ghettos, 219, 224-226
housing market barriers, 224-225
northern migration of, 224-225
technology and, 230
TV portrayal of, 185
as the underclass, 178-179
- AIDS/HIV
activists/lobbyists and, 240-241
drugs and, 57
in East Harlem, 7
"new ethnography" and, 115
outreach program, 235
social policies, 238
- American Blacks. See also African Americans;
Interethnic relations
dark-skinned Puerto Ricans and, 57
and Dominicans, 230
in Eastville, 67-68
racism and, 222-226
- American cities. See also Urban arenas;
Urban design
migration/ethnicity/race and, 220, 222-226
racial minorities in, 226-231
- Anthropology. See also Ethnography of lower income ethnic enclaves, 211-213, 215-216
and poverty, 114-115
of stranger and native, 205-209
- Barrio. See East Harlem; Eastville
- Catholic Church
in East Harlem
and education, 55-56
and family stability, 55
- Child-rearing patterns
in Eastville, 60-62
and education, 55-56, 92
family organization and, 71-73
in infancy, 70-71
and socialization, 64-65
- Class consciousness
in Puerto Rican migrant community, 57-58
among Puerto Rican urban poor, 78
- Community Districts
in New York City, 3-5
Number 11. See East Harlem
- Crime
in Harlem projects, 156, 160-161
in neighborhoods surrounding projects, 154, 164, 173
in Puerto Rican society, 79
and return to Puerto Rico, 85
and underclass, 179
- Dominicans. See also Hispanics and drugs, 214-215
immigration of, 245
and Puerto Ricans, 213-215
- Drug dealing as career alternative, 102 legitimate employment failures of, 100-103
new immigrants and, 111-113
as representative poverty response, 100 and respeto, 103-106
- Drugs
in Dominican enclaves, 214-215
and illegal labor market, 100-103
and return to Puerto Rico, 85
in selected Harlem projects, 154, 160-161
and underground economy, 111-113
- Drug use
and AIDS, 57
in Eastville, 56-57
in projects, 170
among Puerto Rican urban poor, 79
social service institutions and, 239-240 underclass and, 179
unemployment and, 102
- East Harlem. See also Eastville; Puerto Rican migrant community comparison with India, 58
demography of, 5-6

- education/labor force characteristics, 17
 employment/commutation characteristics, 18-19
 ethnographer contributions, 11-12
 ethnography of, 8-9
 geographical boundaries of, 3-4
 health conditions in, 7
 history of, 2-3
 household characteristics, 16 housing characteristics, 20-21
 housing conditions in, 8
 income/poverty characteristics, 22 labor force composition in, 7 medical-ethnographic study, 51-57 theoretical perspective, 52-53 migration into, 2-3
 population, 14-15
 population characteristics, 3, 10, 14
 public housing projects in, 155-164 research in family authority patterns, 137-140
   homelessness, 142-148
   hunger conditions causes, 140-142 neighborhood changes, 148-149
 school dropout rates, 6
 social characteristics, 15
 socioeconomic conditions in, 6-7 views of contemporary, 30-38
   earlier, 23-29
- East Harlem Interfaith Welfare Committee (EHIWC), 140-142
- Eastville. See also East Harlem; Puerto Rican migrant community apartment life in, 68-70
 Catholic Church role in, 55-56
 description of, 66-68
 drug use in, 56-57
 ethnic mix in, 67-68
 family life in, 60-62
 gangs in, 57
 health conditions in, 51
 Hispanic population of, 52
 housing conditions in, 53-54
 Puerto Rican child life in, 70-71
- EAUs. See Emergency Assistance Units
- Education
 child-rearing patterns and, 92
 and migration, 94
 and parental aspirations for children, 92 parochial schools, 55-56
 and women's independence, 88
- EHIWC. See East Harlem Interfaith Welfare Committee
- Emergency Assistance Units (EAUs), 142-146
- Employment. See also Operation Bootstrap crack dealers and, 100-103
 and family stability, 76
 and gender role changes, 84-88
 of illegal Hispanic immigrants, 54
 industrialization and, 79
 of Puerto Rican men, 54, 80
 of Puerto Rican women, 54, 76, 80
 and racism, 99
 resisting exploitation in, 106-111
 and respeto, 103-106
 in service sector, 102-106
- Ethnicity
 and East Harlem residents, 3
 as ethnographic study subject, 1
 and high tech employment, 228-230
 and Puerto Rican migration, 52
- Ethnography
 of East Harlem, 8-9 historical framework for, 11-12
   paradigmatic conceptual elements of, 9-11
- Growing Old in El Barrio exhibition, 122-129
- and oppression, 114-116
 people and policies, 119-121 policy ethnography, 132-135
 social issues data, 121-122, 129-132
 of urban social issues, 2
- Ethnomedical research. See also Health conditions domain clarification, 41-43
 methods, 46-47
 nature of, 43-45
 planning, 43
 retrospective view of, 47-49
- Family. See Puerto Rican family
- Food emergencies. See Hunger
- Gangs, in Eastville, 57
- Gender roles
 changes in, 84-88, 93-94
 immigrant conceptions of, 248
maquiladora program and, 221
 poor Puerto Rican women and, 181-182
 in Puerto Rican families, 54 and service sector employment, 103
 women's paid employment and, 88
- Ghettos
 African Americans and, 219, 224-226
 evolution of, 224
- Hearth conditions. See also Ethnomedical research
 AIDS/HIV, 7, 99
 in East Harlem, 7
 in Eastville, 51

- in neighborhoods surrounding projects, 154
- poverty and, 191-193
- of Puerto Ricans, 99
- Hispanic communities. See also Puerto Rican migrant community
  - in East Harlem, 6
  - employment opportunities in, 219-221, 229
  - heterogeneity within, 6, 10, 14, 229-230, 245
- Hispanics. See also specific nationalities
  - Eastville population of, 52
  - Puerto Ricans as, 57
  - residential areas of, 229-230
  - TV portrayal of, 185
- HIV. See AIDS/HIV
- Homelessness, 115
  - Action Research Project and, 145
  - churning and, 142-145
  - of doubled-up families, 147-148
  - in East Harlem today, 148-149
  - EAUs and, 142-146
  - homeless families
    - legal rights of, 146-147
    - research on, 142-145
  - welfare and, 142-145
- Housing. See also Homelessness; Public housing projects
  - institutional policies and, 197-198
  - Jaggers v. Perales* and, 146
  - McCain v. Dinkins* and, 146-147
  - McCain v. Koch* and, 144
  - projected changes in, 148-149
  - racism and, 224-226
- Housing conditions
  - apartment occupation patterns, 68-70
  - in East Harlem, 8
  - in Eastville, 53-54
- Hunger
  - causes of, 141-142
  - EHIWC research on, 140-142
- Immigrants
  - and American cities, 222-226
  - as ethnographic study subject, 1
  - and new gender role patterns, 248
  - recruitment of, 222
  - self-perception of, 248
  - and slums, 223-224
  - and technology, 226-230
- Immigration. See also Puerto Rican migrant community; Puerto Rican migration
  - contemporary, 245-246
  - in East Harlem history, 2-3
  - interethnic relations, 246-248
  - job/housing opportunities and, 246-247
  - and making of neighborhoods, 2-3, 222-224
  - new meanings and social patterns, 248-249
  - post-World War II, 97-98
  - from Puerto Rico, 11, 63-64, 77
  - and settlement patterns, 222-223
  - transnational links, 249-250
  - unemployment rates and, 80-81, 92
  - of women
    - maquiladora* program and, 219
    - and status, 85
- Industrialization. See also Operation Bootstrap
  - and employment, 79
  - and female employment, 81-82
  - and labor unions, 83
  - and male unemployment, 81
- Interethnic relations
  - African Americans and Dominicans, 230
  - American-born Blacks and West Indians, 247
  - in Eastville, 57
  - among Eastville children, 71
  - housing and, 246-247
  - among immigrants, 223, 229
  - immigration and, 246-248
  - Puerto Ricans and American Blacks, 67-68, 166
  - Puerto Ricans and Dominicans, 213-215
  - Puerto Ricans and Italians, 55, 67-68
- Labor unions
  - industrialization and, 83
  - and women workers, 83
- Lower income urban enclaves. See also East Harlem; Eastville; Neighborhood anthropology of, 1-2, 198-199, 211-216
  - Danish comparisons with, 211-213
  - and Dominican newcomers, 213-215
  - capitalism and, 189-191, 199, 220
  - domestic violence in, 238, 241-242
  - evolution of, 191
  - exposure to crime in, 192
  - formation of, 220-222
  - health conditions in, 7, 223
  - heterogeneity within, 229-230
  - industrialization and, 220-222
  - industrial production and, 220-222
  - life in, 193-195
  - living standards in, 199
  - local institutions and, 191-192, 197-198
  - needs of, 235-238
  - illustrations of, 238-242
  - policy issues, 237-243
  - paradigm-study elements, 9-11
  - poverty and, 192-193

- public policies concerning, 235-238, 242-243
  - child abuse, 238-240
  - family violence, 238, 241-242
  - HIV/AIDS-infected persons, 238, 240-241
- resident lack of control over, 191
- slums and ghettos in, 219-220
- social complexity and, 195-198
- social issues and, 2

Mexicans. See also Hispanics
immigration of, 245

maquiladora program, 219, 221

Migration. See also Immigration

- Operation Bootstrap and, 79-80
- from Puerto Rican urban areas, 11, 53
- among the young/educated, 94

Neighborhood. See also Lower-income urban enclaves

- attachment to, 194-195
- boundaries of, 3
- capitalism and, 191
- as ethnographic study subject, 1
- making of a, 2-3
- Puerto Rican migrants and, 63-64
- as social construct, 43-44

Nuyorican experience. See also Puerto Rican migrant community
constraints of, 97-99
crack economy and, 100-103
ethnographic setting, 99-100

Operation Bootstrap
and agricultural job loss, 79, 181 effects on family, 79, 84-87
failure of, 181
and gender role changes, 84-88, 93-94
and industrialization, 76-79
and life expectancy, 77
and migration, 76, 78-80, 83, 94
stages of, 79-84
and unions, 83
and women in labor force, 77, 79-84

Poverty
capitalism and, 189-191, 198-199
causes of, 190-191
consequences of, 192-193
culture of, 192-193
and dependency on institutions, 192
drug dealer/addict response to, 100
in East Harlem, 6-7, 45, 58, 97-100
economic development and, 78
gender neutrality of, 45

- and health, 191-193
- and household dynamics, 261-263
- and income characteristics, 22
- media views of, 178
- pressures exerted by, 180-181
- in Puerto Rican community, 178-179
- Puerto Rican rates, 99
- self-blame for, 78
- social/economic variables and, 178-180
- theoretical anthropology and, 114-115
- in U.S.-Mexican border region, 255

Projects. See Public housing projects

Public housing projects

- as adolescent development environments, 153-155
  - at-risk young people in, 159
  - children and schools in, 159
  - crime and drug epidemic in, 79, 160-161
  - daily life in, 165-168
  - demographic/behavioral characteristics of, 156
  - extent of, 174
  - and family/social ties, 53-54
  - and Harlem's working poor, 157-159
  - interethnic relations in, 166
  - kin and friends recruitment, 171-172
  - local initiative limits, 172-173
  - myths about, 208
  - occupations of adult workers, 158
  - population of, 175
  - and race-class divide, 161-164
  - safe niches in, 169-171
  - selected Harlem projects, 155-157
  - as strategic neighborhoods, 173-175
  - surrounding neighborhood conditions, 153-154
  - tenant councils/local responsibility in, 168-169
  - tenant organizations-management in, 165
  - underclass status in, 161-164
- Puerto Rican child life
- in Eastville, 70-71
  - extended family ties and, 53-54
  - family organization influence on, 71-73
  - public housing and, 53-54
- Puerto Rican family. See also Homelessness
- apartment occupation patterns, 68-70
  - child-rearing styles, 54, 60-62, 64-65
  - gender roles in, 54
  - parochial school education and, 55-56
  - public housing and, 53-54
  - stability of
    - extended family and, 53-54, 60-62
    - nuclear family and, 60-61
    - public housing and, 53-54, 78
    - religious affiliation and, 55

women and, 54, 78, 93
 Puerto Rican migrant community. See also East Harlem; Eastville crack dealers/addicts in, 99
     cultural disintegration of, 97-99 differences within, 57-58
     employment among, 98-99
     ethnography and oppression, 114-116
     and labor marketplace cultural obstacles in, 98-99
         humiliation in, 99
         and new immigrant competition, 111-113
         racism and, 99-106, 113
         resisting exploitation in, 106-111
     neighborhood settlements of, 63-64 occupational options for, 54
     public assistance and, 99
     socialization of children, 64-65
     "street culture" in, 99-100
         and labor market, 100-103
         and respect, 103-106
     urban background of, 62-63
 Puerto Rican migration issues involved in, 52
     Operation Bootstrap and, 79-81
 Puerto Ricans. See also Race and American Blacks, 57, 67-68
     employment opportunities for, 54
     ethnomedical research among, 41-49 migration of, 11, 53
     production mode changes, 98-99
     race/class distinctions among, 57-58, 78
     skin-color issues, 57-58, 64
     as "the other underclass," 179
 Puerto Rican Study, 75
 Puerto Rican women
     Dominican's view of, 214
     and education, 177-180
     and family, 180-184
     myths about, 177-180, 184-185
 Puerto Rican working class
     and labor unions, 83
     transformation of agricultural employment decline, 79-80
         female employment and, 80-84
         and gender role changes, 82, 84-88
         male unemployment and, 80-81
         Operation Bootstrap and, 76-79
         and politics/class/mobility, 89-92
     unemployment rates for, 80-81
 Puerto Rico
     class status changes in, 91-92 economic transformation of, 98-99. See also Operation Bootstrap

industrialization of, 76-79
 migration from, 76, 78-80, 83, 94, 97-99
 political progress in, 89-90
 social disintegration in, 79

Race

and adaptation to city, 57
 and East Harlem residents, 3
 and high tech employment, 228-229
 and identity, 248
 and Puerto Rican migration, 52
 among Puerto Ricans, 57-58
 and urban design, 222-226, 230-231
 Racism, 190-191
     and American Blacks, 222-226
     capitalism and, 198
     and employment, 99
     expression of, 113
     and ghetto formation, 222-226
     and immigrant self-perception, 248
     and Puerto Rican immigrants, 99-106 service sector requirements and, 103-106

Slums

in anthropology of urban enclaves, 219
 conditions in, 223
 in immigrant experience, 219-220
 Puerto Rican migrants and, 64
 of Puerto Rico, 63
 transformation into black ghettos, 224-226
 Social issues, ethnography of, 2

Underclass

American Blacks as, 178-179
 and "blaming the victim," 116
 crime and, 179
 debate on, 178-179
 and drug use, 179
 markers of in Harlem, 230
 in neighborhoods surrounding projects,
     161-164
 Puerto Ricans as, 179
 U.S. Mexican populations and, 255, 259-260

Underground economy
     drugs and, 111-113

as survival strategy, 189

Unemployment. See also Operation Bootstrap

and authority patterns, 84-85
 effects on Puerto Ricans of, 99
 and migration, 85
 of Puerto Rican men, 80-81, 84-85
 and substance abuse, 102
 among young, 92

Urban arenas

- demography of, 258-261
- experimental interventions, 263-271
- funds of knowledge in, 253-254
- analysis of, 254-258, 275-276
- and exchange relations density, 264-271
- learning/discovery outcomes, 274-275
- model replication, 277-278
- and operational activities, 271-274
- household cluster dynamics, 261-263
- Mexican-U.S. border region
- at-risk children, 265, 269-271
- crime in, 260
- demography of, 256-258
- political economy of, 254-258
- poverty in, 255, 261-263

Urban design

- blockbusting and, 225
- immigration and, 222-224
- racial polarization and, 222, 224-226
- redlining and, 225-226
- residential segregation and, 223-226
- slums
  - African American migration and, 224-225
  - conditions in, 223
  - transformation into black ghettos, 224

Urban life

- crime and, 192
- of Eastville Puerto Rican children, 70-71
- in El Barrio, 66-70
- health conditions, 192-193
- institutional context of, 191-192
- policy issues, 235-238
- poverty and, 190, 192-193
- social environment, 193-195
- social policy effects on, 238-243

Welfare

- dependency of poor on, 192
- family homelessness and, 142-145
- and food emergencies, 143
- poor families and, 192
- Puerto Rican dependency rates, 99
- Puerto Rican women on, 177-185
- Women. See also Puerto Rican women
- Dominican view of Puerto Rican, 214
- and education, 82, 86, 88, 92, 283
- and family, 54, 78, 93
- financial contribution to family, 85-86
- garment workers, 76-78, 80, 84, 86, 90
- as heads of household, 82, 84, 86-87, 93
- industrialization and, 76-77, 79-81, 84
- in labor force, 77, 79-81
  - attitude toward men, 84-87
  - and authority in family, 82-89, 93
  - class/gender consciousness of, 86, 93
  - and divorce/separation, 86-87
  - and gender role changes, 84-88, 93-94
  - as head of household, 85-88
  - and improved standard of living, 90-93
  - increase in, 90
  - and labor unions, 83
  - older workers' concerns, 86-87
- maquiladora* program and, 219-221
- Operation Bootstrap and, 79, 81-84, 93-94
- politics and, 89-90, 93-94
- status of, 62, 78, 84, 93
- unemployment rates for, 80-81
- on welfare, 177-185
  - dignity of, 184
  - marital/employment status shift, 182-183

Index of Contributors

Benmayor, R., xi Bourgois, P., 97-118

Dehavenon, A.L., 137-152

Fernández Kelly, M.P., 219-233

Foner, N., 245-252

Freidenberg, H., vii, 1-39, 119-136

Jones, D.J., 189-203

Kornblum, W., 153-176

Mencher, J., 51-73

Montbach, J., 235-244

Nash, J., 205-209

Padilla, E., 41-50

Safa, H.I., 75-96

Sørensen, N.N., 211-217

Torruellas, R.M.,† 177-187

Vélez-Ibáñez, C.G., 253-280

Williams, T., 153-176

†Deceased.